Origin of the surname BIGGAR according to George F. Black, "The Surnames of Scotland. Their Origin, Meaning and History."

"From the old barony, now the parish of the same name in Lanarkshire. Baldwin de Bigir, who appears as sherrif of Lanrk in the reign of Malcolm IV is the first known to bear the territorial designation."

Many entries in the old parish registries do not list the name of the mother. This creates problems for us when we try to trace our genealogy since most of us are as interested in tracing our maternal lines as well as our paternal ones. To develop CLUES as to the mother's name I have used information within the birth and baptism database such as parish, date, the father's given name, naming patterns, etc.

Perhaps most useful in developing CLUES as to the mother's name has been using the marriage database. Often, the marriage database shows that there was only one marriage of a man with the correct given name, surname and parish within the appropriate time period. For example the following entry from the birth and baptism database:

No name	No name	Alexander	George	Berwick	Coldstream	1788	Aug	11	BIRD	M	C	1067871
No name	No name	Alexander	Agnes	Berwick	Coldstream	1790	Nov	8	BIRD	F	C	1067871
No name	No name	Alexander	James	Berwick	Coldstream	1793	Aug	20	BIRD	M	B	1067871

From the marriage database:

Alexander BIRD M 18 Sep 1786 Margaret BOID Coldstream Berwick 1067871

There are no other entries in the marriage database for Alexander BIRD in Coldstream for more than 10 years on either side of the 1786 date. Therefore, I have changed the birth and baptism database (sorted by family) to read as follows:

BOID	Margaret	Alexander	George	Berwick	Coldstream	1788	Aug	11	BIRD	M	C	1067871
BOID	Margaret	Alexander	Agnes	Berwick	Coldstream	1790	Nov	8	BIRD	F	C	1067871
BOID	Margaret	Alexander	James	Berwick	Coldstream	1793	Aug	20	BIRD	M	B	1067871

In some instances, more than one marriage fits and the entry may appear as follows:

perhaps Agnes CUTHILL or Agnes COLQWHOUNE	No Name	William	JERVAY	James	1673	Nov	3	Stirling	Kilsyth	M	C	1041949
--	---------	---------	--------	-------	------	-----	---	----------	---------	---	---	---------

The following is an example of using the father's given name, the date and parish in an attempt to group a family:

No name	No Name	Duncan	GARVIE	John	1752	Aug	27	Perth	Moneydie	M	C	1040130
No name	No Name	Duncan	GARVIE	Barbra	1754	Dec	29	Perth	Moneydie	F	C	1040130
No name	No Name	Duncan	GARVIE	Barbra	1755	Dec	1	Perth	Moneydie	F	C	1040130
MCKANDLY	Isabel	Duncan	GARVY	Tho	1758	Jul	20	Perth	Moneydie	M	C	1040130

Some rather arbitrary judgments were made in placing some children with, what appear to me to be, their family. Most assuredly, some of those judgments are wrong. Entries in an orange font indicate children for which I could find only one logical family. Entries in a red font indicate that I found two families, or that I am less confident of, that fit the available data on the child. Use both orange and red entries with caution! Always consult the OPR or other original documents. Since the entries for a given family may have multiple variations of the spelling of the surname, not all entries are strictly alphabetical.
